John Nowell, O.D., owner of Southwest Orlando Eye Care, offers a variety of designer and protective ey

E yesight is one of the most precious senses a person poss

Not all people are born with perfect eyesight, but those who have it may be faced with the need for corre

Weekend warriors, sports enthusiasts and people who enjoy being outdoors should make eye protection

John Nowell, O.D., who owns and operates Southwest Orlando Eye Care, is an avid angler, and he und

“Even if you have good vision, everyone should wear excellent quality polarized sunglasses for any outd

Southwest Orlando Eye Care carries an impressive selection of corrective sports glasses and protective

Some sports pose more of a danger to the eyes than others.

“I believe safety eyewear should be mandatory when playing racquetball,” Dr. Nowell said.

In addition to its inventory of designer frames, sunglasses, contact lenses, bifocals and progressive lens

Dr. Nowell performs comprehensive exams to determine if his patients need corrective lenses, diagnose

“I recommend that everyone should have an annual eye exam,” said Dr. Nowell, who believes in a more

Board-certified in optometry, Dr. Nowell is able to diagnose and treat ocular diseases. He believes that g

From eye protection to eye fashion, Dr. Nowell and his professional staff at Southwest Orlando Eye Care

Southwest Orlando Eye Care is located in Suite 110 at 7009 Dr. Phillips Blvd. in Orlando. For mor

www.southwestorlandoeyecare.com